OFFICER INVOLVED SHOOTING IN CHARLESTON

The South Carolina Law Enforcement Division's (SLED) Low Country Region Agents continue to investigate an Officer Involved Shooting which happened November 5, 2008 at The Citadel Mall in Charleston, S.C.

SLED confirms that an Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) Agent fired his weapon during the incident.

SLED agents are looking into the circumstances surrounding the shooting and are working with the Charleston Police Department.

The ICE agent was not injured.

Due to the on-going investigation, SLED cannot release any further information.

If there are any new developments dealing with this case, SLED will pass the information along, promptly.

The Charleston Police Department is investigating the circumstances which led up to the Officer Involved Shooting.

Please direct all questions pertaining to that part of the case to Public Information Officer Charles Francis.
