MCCORMICK COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPUTY CHARGED WITH HARRASSMENT

The South Carolina Law Enforcement Division (SLED) announces the arrest of a McCormick County Sheriff's Deputy, accused of harassing a female.

Calvin Henry Moore, 44, of 7 Carver Street Extension is charged with Misconduct In Office (Public Officer) and Harassment (First Degree).

According to arrest warrants, Moore harassed a former female acquaintance through the use of voice mail and text messages and letters.

Moore is also accused of following the woman to various places including her place of employment.

Moore was given written and verbal notice that this type of behavior was not wanted by the victim.

He is further accused of gaining access to DMV information belonging to the victim and her associates for his personal use and gain.

These crimes happened between October 1, 2008 and July 10, 2009 in McCormick County.

Misconduct In Office (Public Officer) is an offense punishable up to a year in prison.

Harassment (First Degree) is a misdemeanor offense punishable up to three years in prison.
